History

Empowering Women Since 1894

The Ebell of Los Angeles is LA's longest running women's club. Inspired by scholar Dr. Adrian Ebell, the Ebell of Los Angeles was founded by women, for women in 1894. The organization's philanthropic endeavors include awarding scholarships to students and providing grants to charities that help at-risk women and children in the Los Angeles community. The club also hosts social and cultural events that inspire and empower. The Ebell has been honored to host diverse and outstanding women such as Amelia Earhart, the last Queen of Romania and Michelle Obama.

Designed by architect Sumner Hunt, the Ebell of Los Angeles is commemorating its 90th year on Wilshire Boulevard. With three levels and 75,000 square feet, the renaissance-inspired structure is a noted architectural treasure and registered National Historic Landmark. The building includes a grand dining room, art salon, courtyard garden, and 1,266 seat Broadway-style theater. History resonates throughout the building - the Art Salon was one of the first art galleries in Los Angeles; Judy Garland was discovered on the Wilshire Ebell Theatre stage; and in nine decades, the theatre stage has been graced by performers ranging from Elizabeth Taylor to U2.

The Wilshire Ebell Theatre

The historic Wilshire Ebell Theatre is one of Los Angeles' only Broadway-style houses. Built in 1927, our theater has 1270 seats. The Theater also includes newly renovated backstage dressing rooms and is connected to our beautiful Clubhouse. The Theater is ideal for screenings, awards shows, conferences, performances and film shoots with an easy transition to our Clubhouse for receptions, lunches, dinners and breakout sessions.
